

PUBLIC LEDGER

MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN.

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

In Danville a colored woman was fined $500 for selling rot liquor. This means five hundred days in jail.

MISS LOUELLA STEWART, First Primary Teacher in the Colored School, has the grip. Miss Lida Smith is substituting for her room.

Ayer's Hair Veil prevent the hair from falling, and restores gray hair to its original color. Ayer's Almanac at your druggist's.

DRIVING SWETT & DE COURSEY, the enterprising managers who bring the novel Minstrel Farce Comedy, "A Stranger," to Maysville on next Saturday night, have long been known as strictly reliable and energetic amusement managers. Their names have always been connected with first class attractions and the public have learned to rely upon their always truthful advertising.

GOING TO THE WALL.

Thomas H. Ruggles of Toluca, Mexico, makes an assignment.

Another Democratic Free trade victory.

Thomas H. Ruggles, who for several years has been conducting the largest general store in Linn county, yesterday morning made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

F. Balor Trussell, the well known attorney, is the assignee.

Mr. Ruggles succeeded R. M. Gillespie in business, and though he had an extensive trade his affairs have been running for some time past.

Slow collections and this "era of good times" which has put so many days' work and dollars "out of sight" coupled to render a continuance hopeless.

There is no statement of liability, but they are thought to be quite heavy, but divided principally between Maysville and Cincinnati.

THE LAST RITES.

Express Services Over the Remains of Dr. J. P. Phister.

The funeral of the late Dr. John P. Phister occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and it was largely attended.

The main body of the Central Presbyterian Church was occupied by the family and friends, and by Oddfellows and Knights of Pythias, of which Orders the Doctor had been long an influential member.

Rev. W. O. Coobrane, Pastor of the Church, delivered an impressive sermon, after which the remains were borne to their final rest, followed by a sorrowing cortège.

About one hundred Oddfellows and fifty Knights of Pythias were in line.

At the grave the beautiful funeral charge of the Oddfellows was delivered by A. M. J. Cochran, and that of the K. of P. by Lennox Purcell.

It is only to note that the deceased had been officiating at the funeral of the last Oddfellow that was buried—the late Josiah Wilson—and it is no disparagement to say that he had no superior in rendering the impressive charge for the dead.

MORE "DEMOCRATIC" TIMES.

When a $25 Cow sold for $1 and Mules for $150.

Woodford Sun.—The other day I came across an old copy of The Weekly Kentucky Freeman, dated Frankfort, July 7, 1843.

One item it contains would indicate that the hard times of which we are now complaining are really times of prosperity and plenty compared with the hard times of 1843. It is as follows:

"As one of the instances of hard times, we give the following statement of iron tide sales of property twelve months' credit, which recently took place at an auctioneer's sale in Woodford county, viz.: One cow, four years old, sold for $30, Kelly about $25 and considered too trouble.

after the performance he suggested a

THREE BURNED.

A Disastrous Fire in the Village of Mills, Ky.

Mrs. Houser and Her Two Grown Daughters the Victims.

The Farmer Could Have Saved Himself But Brought to Awaken the Sleeping Girls—A Number of Dwellings Are Burned—Lives Lost About $50,000.

BARBERSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 16.—A disastrous fire occurred at Mills, a small village about 10 miles west of this place in Harrison county, about daybreak Tuesday morning, in which three persons perished and a number of buildings were destroyed.

The fire broke out in the store and residence of Frederick Houser, and the residence part of the building was so nearly consumed when the occupants were awakened that they were unable to escape with their lives.

Houser and his oldest son made their escape. His wife could also have been saved but for the fact that she attempted to awaken her two daughters, aged respectively 17 and 19, who occupied a small guest-room overhead.

Several other persons were badly burned later as the fire spread. The loss to the neighborhood of $35,000 with no insurance.

Mills is not a railroad town, and is situated back in the Cumberland mountains, over a way that is not often traversed. A courier was sent here Tuesday morning with a dispatch to the office of the Louisville family, who live near Lawrence, Ark.

The fire has been completely subdued, but there are several families without shelter, and their neighbors have but little to divide.

THE MILITIA.

Two Actions to See the Circuit-Mitchell Fight to Stop It.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 16.—Major J. E. Bowden, of the Duval club, is conferring with Gov. Mitchell. Before leaving for Tallahassee, Bowden wired the governor, requesting an audience.

Gov. Mitchell promptly responded, stating that he would consider any proposition the club presented him. This unexpected courtesy was very encouraging to the members of the club and Bowden is very confident of winning his excellency over to the popular cause.

Capt. Bannon, of the St. Augustine Rifles, predicts that Gov. Mitchell will give Bowden no satisfaction, and he furthermore believes that the militia will obey any call the governor may make for it.

"The militia," says Bannon, "while they would respond to the call, would not likely attempt to do anything further than preserve order. They are all too stuck on seeing the fight to stop it."

H. M. Flagler, the sage of St. Augustine, declares he will do all in his power to keep the fight out of St. John's county.

ITALIAN MOBS

Contests to Disturb the Quiet of the Nations.

ROMA, Jan. 16.—There was considerable excitement Tuesday at Carrara over the discovery Saturday night of an anarchist plot. A report from Carrara Monday led the police and military authorities to prevent any attempt to carry out the plans of the conspirators. But the number of adherents of anarchists from the adjoining districts sought to enter the city, but were prevented by the military. A number of shots were exchanged by the rioters and the troops, but so far as known no one was hurt. Fearing that the mob would get them to get into the city, where there is no doubt, they intended to join the anarchist residents in rioting, the mob scattered in different directions. They are now securing the country, carrying terror to the quiet towns.

Dry Goods' Lowest Figure.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The Daily Goods Record Tuesday says: "Agents have made the jobbing price of American goods to be 30 per cent lower than the average gingham was not. This is the lowest price ever reached, not excepting the auction sale of September 14, 1888, as then the average price was far below what can be had, whereas now buyers can make their selection at any price." Agents have received the jobbing price of American gingham to 30 per cent, also the lowest ice except in the spring of 1891 for a short time.

Something to Talk About at Deputy.
DETROIT, Ind., Jan. 16.—The village Deputy is now busily discussing the latest general news, wearing a coat in which he has taken a few patches. The tangles of marriage were never more curiously stated. It is reported that Mrs. Lucas George Ray were married by his Robertson. If such was the case and upon whom the town is to be known is a question.

Tom Allen says Mitchell will play for a short, passing battle at short notice.

All is quiet at Tallahassee, and the Dual people are jubilant.

CALLS FOR CASH.

CARTERS SAY HIS ESTIMATES WERE TOO LOW, AND HE MUST HAVE MONEY INSTEAD.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—A letter to Senator T. C. Tracy, chairman of the Senate finance committee, showing the actual condition of the treasury on the 19th day of the present month, and an estimate of the receipts and expenditures during the remainder of this month and the month of February. "It will be seen from the statement that there is an urgent necessity for such immediate action as will replenish the coin reserve, and enable this department to continue the payment of public expenses and discharge the obligations of the government, pensioners and other lawful creditors."

When my annual report was prepared it was estimated that the expenses during the current fiscal year would exceed the receipts to the amount of about $300,000, and I asked congress for authority to issue state bonds or other forms of obligations, to an amount not exceeding $500,000, bearing a low rate of interest and having a reasonably short term to run, to enable the secretary of the treasury to meet the deficiency.

The receipt and expenditures during the month of December and up to the 19th day of the present month, show that the estimate of a deficiency of $300,000 at the close of the year was much too low.

As the same average monthly deficiencies should continue, the total difference between receipts and expenditures in June next will be $74,167.

According to the best estimate that can be made, the total receipts during the present month will be $64,000, showing a deficiency during the two months of $18,400; but this does not include any payments on account of the sugar bounty, claims for which to the amount of nearly $45,000, which are already been presented, and are now under investigation in the department.

The coin reserve, has been reduced to $74,108,149, and it is evident from the condition of the treasury, that the department will be compelled to defer the ordinary expenses of the government unless a large part of the payments are hereafter made out of that fund. If this is done the coin reserve will be reduced by the 1st of February to about $60,601,864, a sum wholly inadequate for the purpose for which it was created.

On account of this critical condition of the treasury, I have considered it my duty, in addition to the earnest recommendations contained in my annual report, to appeal twice before your committee, and after full explanations of the situation, to exempt legislative action on this subject.

With the permission of the committee, I have prepared and presented for its consideration a bill, which, if promptly passed, would, in my opinion, all the requirements of the situation, except the payment of the amount necessary for defraying the public expenses and repaying the coin reserve to such an extent as to assure the maintenance of the parity of all forms of United States currency."

SOME CHANGES

Already Agreed to in the Wilson Disclosure.

The Short-Talk Tariff Disclosure Process.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 17.—At one o'clock Tuesday morning burglars entered Schmitz's soap factory. They gained entrance to the main building while the watchman was in another room. The intruders, however, were discovered, on his return, he was suddenly seized, bound, gagged and fastened in a closet.

The burglar then proceeded to blow the safe and rifle it of its contents. They seemed about $600 in money, and about $4,000 in silver and change. Half an hour after they left the building, the night watchman managed to get his feet unfastened by pulling his boots off, and, rolling out of a window over some barrels, made his way to "Squire Griff's residence, where he went home and the alarm given.

There were three of the burglars, who were masked. They showed by every move that they were thoroughly acquainted with the factory. The supposition is that it was a combination of home and foreign talents. The men who left on the 3 o'clock B. & O. train, west bound, are under suspicion. The police followed on the next train.

He further said that he would see that they were tried as such. He also instructed them to indict every reporter that was connected with the mob, and especially to indict the reporter who accompanied the mob and assisted at the hanging.

Costs for Cash.

Costs for Cash and Cream What Many Consumers Get.

New York, Jan. 17.—Within the last three or four months 25,000 packages, containing about 1,100,000 pounds, of cream have been imported by James McEvy, the tea inspector at the United States appraiser's store. Already more bad tea has been imported than in any similar period since the passage of the act of congress of 1883.

"To prevent the importation of adulterated tea, the law forbids the importation of adulterated tea liquor on the Chinese."

The following frank confession of adulteration was published in an English paper of Shanghai, which arrived recently:

"As a beverage, tea is the most nutritious for the purpose of brightening one's complexion, giving vigor and strength, and should be observed in its preparation."

"It is a matter for regret that the manufacturers of Ping Suey tea have been most conspicuous by their absence of the above-named qualities. Chinese tea, in their greed for gain, seem to have lost sight of the true article and then sold to consumers. As a matter of fact, only about 100,000 chests should be on the market this year, yet the quantity appears to be just as great as in the flourishing seasons of former years."

They

creased $5,978,533, while the statement for the fiscal year ending December 31st, 1888, shows that the debt is $37,798,107 more than it was a year ago. The Government receipts in December, 1888, as compared with December, 1887, fall short by $10,750,000. The gold reserve is nearly $25,000,000 less than a year ago, and the Secretary of the Treasury, in his first report to Congress, recommended the creation of a new interest bearing bonds.

This Wilson Tariff policy is not only plotting the ruin of our industries and the impoverishment of the people, but it is rapidly drifting the Government itself into bankruptcy. Will the American people permit this program to go on to the bitter end?

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 6th, 1889.—The "Advertiser," "The Courier," "The Gleaner," &c. give me their permission to speak of your Antislavery as I consider it important. My old servant Abert, who is 72 years old, was very ill with pneumonia, complained of his heart, and I sent him to Dr. W. H. H. physician and gave him every attention but did not know what was the matter, and the only thing that could be done was to make him comfortable. At that time I used to give him Stockton's Antislavery, as it seemed to be performing all the functions of a physician. He had regular doses every three hours and the fever began to clear up from the third dose, and a doctor of improved, and he was well again in three days. He was sitting up and in a week or two he was well again. I enquire regarding his strength very fast. I consistently believe it saved the old man's life. I consider it a sufficient guarantee of a "Stranger's" performance.
